Crabtree, Rohrbaugh & Associates, Regional Architectural Firm announces new Shareholders.

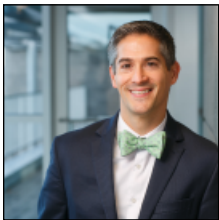

Crabtree, Rohrbaugh & Associates is proud to announce five new shareholders to firm: M. E. Rowe, Scott Cousin, AIA, Joshua Bower, AIA, Larry Levato, AIA and Leah Shiley, MBA. The announcement was made at the firm's year end meeting.

M.E. Rowe joined the firm in 2000, and is an Interior Design Senior Project Manager. She focuses on educational design, leading the interior design and planning efforts for the firm's most challenging projects. She has been working with State College Area School District on the addition/renovation of "State High" and three elementary school projects.

Scott Cousin, AIA joined the firm in 2004 and is a Senior Project Manager who focuses on healthcare design, corporate office design, and educational design. Scott leads all healthcare projects for the firm leading the efforts for several private companies across the country. He is also leading the design efforts for the new Dover High School.

Joshua C. Bower, AIA joined the firm in 2007, and is a Senior Project Manager who serves as Director of our Charlottesville, VA Office. He is currently leading the design effort for Staunton City Schools' renovation to their high school and several higher education and county projects.

Larry Levato, AIA joined the firm in 2010, and is a Senior Project Manager focusing on educational design and management of architectural staff workload and operations. While providing oversight to all of the firm's projects, Larry is leading the efforts on the addition/renovation to Penn Manor High School.

Leah E. Shiley, MBA joined the firm in 2014, and is the Director of Client Relations for the firm. She focuses on the marketing efforts for the education sector and works closely with development of marketing's strategic planning efforts.

The new shareholders join current shareholders; Thomas C. Crabtree, AIA, G. Douglas Rohrbaugh, Richard LeBlanc, AIA, John Beddia, AIA, Tracy Rohrbaugh, Allied IIDA, J. Brian Haines, AIA, Randy Davis, R. Jeffrey Straub, AIA, Eric Lee, CPA, Joseph Crabtree and Meghan Rohrbaugh.

With 16 shareholders now in place, keeping our visions focused on our “Client-Oriented” approach to architecture, we are excited about the future of the firm. The firm wrapped up 2017 with an excellent year finishing the design and construction of several major projects. The firm landed multiple new projects in several key markets throughout the Mid-Atlantic and Nationally.

Crabtree, Rohrbaugh & Associates is a full service architectural firm headquartered in Mechanicsburg, PA with offices in Baltimore, MD, Charlottesville, VA, and White Sulphur Springs, WV. The firm serves the Education, Healthcare, Corporate, Government and Retail markets across the United States and Canada.
